

JAIWR Youth Workshop

Dating Violence and CEDAW Dance

Date : 9 March (Monday)

Time : 6:15 p.m. ~ 7:45 p.m.

Venue: 4 W 43rd Street

Room: Aqua Room

Let`s dance together and understand the idea of the UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women to address dating violence against girls/women.

The issue of violence against girls/women is a critical concern of the Platform of Action adopted at the Beijing Conference. Even now 25 years after the Conference violence against girls/women still is an universal phenomenon. At the workshop the issue of dating violence as well as the Convention will be presented in an easily understandable ways in particular for young people. It also helps increase an understanding of these issues, thus aims to contribute to reducing the problem of violence.

What has JAIWR been doing in this area?

JAIWR has been engaged in various activities with regard to effective implementation on CEDAW. Included are awareness raising on the issue of violence against girls/women and advocacy for ratification on the Protocol to CEDAW.

